

BPL interference will no doubt destroy our ability to receive international shortwave broadcast; thereby denying our right to consume free speech from sources other than those controlled by the federal government. It will be a violation of our first amendment right; lawsuits will undoubtedly come forth.